

Dear Recipient,

Welcome to the first edition of the BRMS Bulletin, a quarterly newsletter dedicated to insurance and risk management.

BRMS Open House

Thank you to those who attended our open house in July. We are really excited about our new location and the growth of our BRMS Staff. If you are ever in the Hancock Park area, feel free to drop by. We would also like to wish a special congratulations to the winner of our summer promotion, Adam Zaghera of Westside Treatment... Click here for photos from the open house.

For Faith Based Organizations

Putting Procedures in place to protect your ministry's money by GuideOne Center for Risk Management

To help keep your church's finances secure, develop a policy that identifies how money is handled, counted, reported and audited and includes a system of internal financial controls. Following this policy will help prevent the misappropriation of funds. Implement the "two unrelated adults" rule. This rule states that two people who are unrelated should be in the presence of the money from the time it is collected until it is deposited. Click here to continue reading...

For Long Term Care Providers

Employment Practices Liability Exposure for Long Term Care Providers by Michael Boldt, NHA, ARM

Employment Practices Liability has become one of the leading exposures that threaten nursing homes, assisted living facilities, home health care agencies and other long term care providers. The long term care industry suffers from a relatively high incidence of Employment Practices Liability (EPL) claims. There are several underlying factors which contribute to this phenomenon.
